will draw G. a. at the rates admissible to them

Among non-official members, one is a retired is the rate allowed to non-official members of

The above note does not go into the question fully:-

The points for settlement are:-

(1) The rates of mileage, & railway fare to be paid to non-official members ~~for the~~

(2) The rates of half allowance & the period for which half allowance might be given - ~~whether from the leave months~~ and how journeys which such members might make to their own homes & back in connection with their private business or where there were no sitting have to be dealt with

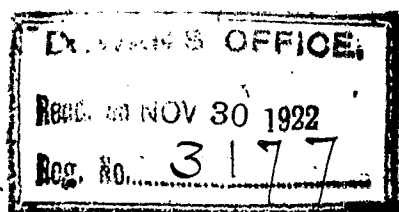

(3) Whether any allowances & monthly bonus for non-official members resident in Bangalore -

None of the non-official members resident in Bangalore have raised the question of any allowance to them & probably it was not intended that any honorarium should be paid.

As regards non-official members they may be given 1st class air & 2nd fare (1 1/2 fares) & mileage at 8 annas. As regards to a long period. Perhaps a daily allowed Rs 5 fares unless for journeys to their homes back for period when the committee had no sitting.

Perhaps the chairman may be excluded.

Submitted to His Highness.

On the Committee appointed for working out the details of the Constitutional Developments, there are two non-official gentlemen from the moffussil, namely Messrs. S. Venkatesiah and C. Srinivasa Rao. The rates at which travelling allowance has to be given to them in respect of their journeys to and from Bangalore and for their halts at Bangalore have to be decided. The Financial Secretary suggests that the following rates may be allowed:-

" Railway fare: As for first class officers, i.e., a single fare and a half.

Road Mileage: Annas eight.

Travelling allowance for only 2 journeys once to Bangalore and again back to their head-quarters may be given. If there is any fairly long interval during which the Committee does not meet, travelling allowance for going and coming back may be given in addition.

Daily allowance: Rs. 7-8-0.

Daily allowance may be given for the whole period except the following:-

1. Days on which the members leave the station with the permission of the Chairman.
2. Interval, if any, during which the Committee does not meet and which is sufficiently long to permit of the members going back to their headquarters."

I approved of these proposals and directed the paper to be circulated to the Members of Council who also agree to them.

The proposals may be graciously sanctioned.
